ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: All delegates attending BASIC will abide by the following BASIC LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP RULES.

- 1.No drugs or alcohol.
- 2.No delegate will leave the campus without permission of the Workshop Director/Dorm Dean.
- 3.No outside guests—adult guests will need permission from the Workshop Director.
- 4.Dorm rules, University Campus rules and general OASC rules will be specified and clarified by the Workshop Director and Workshop Facilitators. These rules will be presented to all delegates at the first General Session and will be strictly enforced. The dress code will be strictly enforced—no soffee cheer shorts, no spaghetti straps, no low cut tops, no hats, etc.
- 5.Delegates are liable for any damage done to the University property by the delegate(s).
- 6.Delegates realize that they are under the supervision of any adult connected with the workshop and that if they fail to abide by any of the rules, they will be sent home.
- 7.Delegates realize that if they are to receive the greatest benefits from the Leadership Workshop, they must be willing to participate actively in all phases of the workshop.
N.B. YOU CANNOT TAKE COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT AND ATTEND BASIC AT THE SAME TIME. YOU MUST ATTEND ALL SESSIONS IN ORDER TO BE A WORKSHOP DELEGATE.
- 8.Delegates have parental consent to travel to and from the workshop as arranged by their school advisor. In no case will they be considered under the workshop supervision before registration or after final assembly.
9. An infraction of these rules will, according to Article XIV-B of the OASC Constitution, require that a student be sent home (at the parent's expense) and the member school be placed on probation for one (1) year. This means no participation in any OASC or NASC Conference, workshop, or meeting. The principal, advisor and parents shall be informed of the infraction.
10. Students can attend BASIC only once. If your school attempts to register a student who has previously attended BASIC; your school will go on probation.
