OASC OFFICER'S CORNER

Hello! My name is Quinn Cooper from Bishop Kelley High School. I will be serving as the 2007 OASC State President. First, let me begin by saying how honored I am to have been elected. I look forward to working with all of you in the coming year—it's going to be very exciting! During our presidential campaign, we promised a newsletter each month (which is what this will serve as), and the possibility of an officer exchange in districts as well as more OASC involvement. We're working on the officer exchange and should have something prepared by the first of the 2007-2008 school year. Furthermore, I want to encourage all of the advisors to send delegates to BASIC or Advanced this summer. All of the state officers will be working at BASIC—it's an amazing experience, and we all highly recommend it! As I said before, I look forward to working with you all during the year. Please do not hesitate to e-mail me with questions or suggestions. My e-mail is gac5@cox.net. Thank you and best of luck to you and your council this month!
