NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR ENERGY EDUCATION

Student Councils across the nation are joining the National Foundation for Energy Education (NFEF) to engage students in helping solve our energy crisis. The NFEF is seeking a school to host a workshop in the Oklahoma City area during early December. Middle and High school delegations of one teacher and three students from 12-20 schools are expected. NFEF will provide all funds, a $200 teacher stipend, and lots of support. NFEF staff will conduct a training dinner 5-7 weeks prior to the workshop for student leaders and advisers. Edison Student Council will host the Tulsa area workshop. Learn more about the workshop by calling Jerry Katz (888-860-1222) or visiting www.TheGreatAmericanEnergyDebate.org and selecting the workshop link.

OASC SPONSORS RSVP TRAINING SESSIONS

Raising Student Voice & Participation:

The OASC sponsors training sessions for high schools interested in initiating the RSVP program in their school. Contact Darryl Andrews at darryl.andrews@yukonps.com for information.

What is RSVP?

- Student engagement program sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) and the National Association of Student Councils (NASC). Visit www.nasc.us
- It is easily integrated into existing student council programs. Student council leaders plan and facilitate a series of summits that engage the student body in dialogues and assemble student action teams to carry out plans for resolving concerns identified in the summits.

To: OASC National Delegates

We are planning an action-packed trip to Indianapolis this summer. We will be leaving on Wednesday, June 23, 2010, headed for an amazing leadership experience! Enclosed in this packet you will find a tentative itinerary of the events we have planned for you.

Wednesday, June 23, through Saturday, June 26, will be the Oklahoma pre-trip. We will make our first stop in Branson, MO where we will go to Silver Dollar City, have dinner and a show at the Dixie Stampede, and Ride the Ducks on the next morning. We will head to St. Louis on Thursday, June 24 where we will go up in the Arch, visit some of the fabulous sites in the downtown area, and possibly go shopping at the Union Station Mall. The Nationals Conference will begin on Saturday, June 26, at Center Grove High School in Greenwood, IN (a suburb of Indianapolis) and will last until noon on Tuesday, June 29. On Tuesday, we will head back to Springfield, MO to spend the night, and return to Oklahoma on Wednesday, June 30. (Please realize these plans are still in the negotiation phase, and a few details may change.)

Indiana has an amazing four days planned for NASC. We will hear many fabulous speakers, meet people from all over the country, visit the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and Children's Museum, and work with the boys/girls club youth from Indianapolis.

We hope you are excited and ready to "Start the Engines of Leadership" with the other fine young Oklahoma delegates in June!

I can't wait to meet each of you!
