NATIONAL YOUTH TRAFFIC SAFETY MONTH

Each May youth across the United States unite during National Youth Traffic Safety Month (NYTSM) to focus on the leading cause of death for them and their peers: traffic-related crashes. NYTSM empowers youth to develop and lead traffic safety education projects and support law enforcement and legislation to protect teen drivers. A toolkit with a wealth of planning information and ideas can be found at the National Organizations for Youth Safety (NOYS) website: www.noys.org. If your organization sponsors a traffic safety project during May, be sure to enter it in the Fifty Best Awards contest. Sponsored by The Allstate Foundation in conjunction with NOYS, the contest awards $1,000 to 50 local youth organizations for their youth-developed and -implemented projects that demonstrate a strong community/school project focused on youth traffic safety. Register your project for consideration before May 31, 2011 at www.noys.org/YouthTrafSafe/toolkit.html

OASC WEBSITE

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF STUDENT COUNCILS DUES

The invoice for your 2011–12 NASC affiliation fee has been mailed to your principal's attention. Renew today so your school won't miss out on the benefits of NASC membership, including Leadership for Student Activities magazine, special student council resources, awards, and leadership training opportunities. Please check with your principal to confirm that your renewal invoice was received. If your renewal invoice has not been received within the next ten school days (by April 11th), please call our Membership Department at 800-253-7746, option 4, or e-mail membership@nasc.us. Staff members are available from 8:30 a.m.– 4:30 p.m. (ET), Monday through Friday.

Thank you,
Jeff Sherrill
Associate Director of NASC

NASC CERTIFIED STUDENT LEADER

The NASC Student Leaders Program is a rigorous and challenging national skill and knowledge-based recognition program created by the National Association of Student Councils to identify outstanding individual student council leaders in high schools. Students earning the certified student leader designation have demonstrated their personal leadership abilities and met the skills and criteria established by NASC. Below is the application and materials you'll need to apply to be an NASC Student Leader. All instructions for applying are with the application packet. Remember to keep a copy of everything for your own records.
